Failure of the Declarant, Association or of any Owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

Section 2. Severability. Invalidation of any one or more of these covenants or restrictions, by judgment or court order, shall in no way affect any other provisions, which other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. Amendment. This Declaration may be amended at any time by the approval of the Owners of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the Lots then covered by this Declaration. Any such amendment shall be valid only upon its being recorded in the same manner as deeds shall be recorded at such time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as the Declarant owns at least one (1) Lot, Declarant shall have the right to unilaterally amend this Declaration ("Unilateral Amendment"); provided, however, (i) the then current Owners shall not be liable for any then-existing violation of the terms of any Unilateral Amendment, and (ii) the Declarant shall provide written notice to the Owners at least fifteen (15) days prior to filing a Unilateral Amendment.

Section 4. Term. These covenants and restrictions contained in this Declaration shall run with the land, and shall be binding for an initial term of twenty (20) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years each, unless earlier terminated by a vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the Owners prior to expiration of the then current term.
