If any owner fails to repair, maintain or replace the exterior portions of his apartment as set forth in this Master Deed and the By-Laws described below, the Association may perform such work, invoice the owner therefore and secure and enforce a claim and lien therefor against the owner and his unit in like manner as a delinquent assessment for common element or limited common element expense.

VI. VALUES

The total basic value of the entire Condominium Regime is Seven Hundred Thirty Nine Thousand Dollars ($739,000), and the basic value of each unit together with its street address, a general description thereof, its limited common elements, its percentage share of the expenses and ownership of the common elements and the number of votes incident to ownership of such unit, are all set forth in Exhibit "H" attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof.

VII. COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

a. The Northampton Court Association, Inc., a Nebraska non-profit corporation, has been incorporated to provide a vehicle for the management of the Condominium Regime. Each owner shall automatically be deemed a member of the Association. The By-Laws of said Association are also the By-Laws of this Condominium Regime and are attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

b. All common elements are for the use and enjoyment of all owners. The limited common elements are for the exclusive use of the owner of the unit to which they are appurtenant, his family, guests, servants and invitees. The ownership of the common elements shall remain undivided, and no person or owner shall bring any action for the partition or division of the common elements. The Board of Administrators of the Association shall from time to time establish rules and regulations for the use of the common elements, and all owners and users shall be bound thereby. The Board of Administrators of the Association shall have the sole jurisdiction over and responsibility for alterations, improvements, repairs and maintenance of the common elements. The share of an owner in the common elements is appurtenant to his apartment and inseparable from apartment ownership. Assessments against owners for insurance, common element expenses and reserves, and for other expenses incurred by the Association shall be made pursuant to the By-Laws. Assessments paid within thirty (30) days after the date when due shall not bear interest, but all sums not paid within said thirty (30) day period shall bear interest at the highest legal rate chargeable to individuals in Nebraska from the due date until paid. If any owner shall fail or refuse to make any payment of such assessments when due, the amount thereof plus interest shall constitute a lien upon the owner's interest in his unit and in the property, and upon the recording of such lien by the Association in the Office of the Register of Deeds of Douglas County, Nebraska, such amount shall constitute a lien prior and preferred over all other liens and encumbrances except assessments, liens and charges for taxes past due and unpaid on the unit and except prior duly recorded mortgage and lien instruments.

c. Each owner shall be responsible:

- (1) To maintain, repair and replace, at his expense, all portions of his apartment which are not included in the definition of common elements or limited common elements.
- (2) To refrain from painting, decorating, or changing the appearance of any portion of the exterior of the unit building, whether a part of the common elements, the limited common elements, or his apartment, unless approved by the Association in writing.

d. Each apartment shall be used and occupied only as a single family residence and for no other purpose. No apartment may be subdivided into a smaller apartment nor any portion thereof be sold or transferred without the owner thereof first amending this Master Deed. This restriction shall not apply to units owned by Developer and used as "model" units or sales offices for sales purposes.

e. No practice or use shall be permitted on the condominium property or in any apartment which shall be an annoyance to other owners or residents of the area or which shall interfere with their peaceful use and enjoyment of their property. All

Exhibit "H" attached to the Master Deed and holders holding at least fifty-one percent (51%) of all of the first mortgages on all units in the Condominium Regime may at any time in writing duly acknowledged and recorded effect an amendment to this Master Deed and to the By-Laws and plans attached hereto. The 51% of the mortgage holders need not be a part of the 75% of the unit holders.

g. This Condominium Regime may be terminated, waived, or merged with another duly constituted condominium regime only in accordance with the provisions applicable thereto as provided in the By-Laws attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

h. Household pets within the condominium will be subject to regulation, restriction, exclusion or special fees as may be determined by the Board of Administrators of the Association from time to time. Awnings, outside T.V. antenna, storage of boats, campers, trailers or similar items shall all be subject to regulations, restrictions, exclusion or special fees by the Board of Administrators of the Association. Use of the common elements for other than recreational purposes is prohibited. The keeping of livestock or poultry upon the common elements, limited common elements or in any unit is prohibited. All garage doors must remain closed at all times except when cars are entering or existing the garage space. Individual garbage cans or trash receptacles are to be permitted outside only in areas designated therefore by the Board of Administrators of the Association. Private barbecue grills may not be used in the common areas, and outside use or storage of barbecue grills will be subject to regulation, restriction or exclusion by the Board of Administrators of the Association. Automobile parking will be subject to regulation and restriction by the Board of Administrators of the Association. Any special fees required by Association Rules and Regulations, duly enacted, shall be collected as determined by the Board of Administrators.

VIII. SEPARATE TAXATION

Developer shall give written notice to the County Assessor of the creation of the Condominium Regime so that each appurtenant thereto, shall be deemed a parcel and subject to separate assessment and taxation.

IX. EASEMENTS

Easements are hereby reserved and granted from and to Developer and each owner of a condominium unit for encroachment if any part of a condominium unit encroaches upon any other unit, the limited common elements, or the common elements or if any such encroachment shall hereafter occur due to the settling or shifting of a building or for any other reason, or if such building is repaired or rebuilt after damage or destruction. The Association shall have an easement in and upon each apartment for the performance of repairs upon the common elements or the limited common elements, and for emergency repairs to any part of the condominium property.

X. AMENDMENTS TO MASTER DEED

The Grantor, Bert P. Allen, Trustee, herein called "Developer", expressly reserves for himself and his successors and assigns, for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof, or until the closing of the title of not less than 17 condominium units located in the Condominium Regime, whichever event occurs first, the right to execute on behalf of all contract purchasers, unit owners, mortgagees, other lien holders, and parties claiming any legal or equitable interest in this Condominium Regime or in any unit, any amendments to this Master Deed which he may deem

c. To permit the users of occupants of lands owned by or controlled by the Grantor to utilize easements, roads, drainage facilities, utility lines, and the like within or servicing the condominium, on such fair and equitable terms and conditions as shall be negotiated with the Condominium Regime.

d. To surrender or modify rights of the Grantor in favor of the unit owners and/or the Condominium Regime and/or their respective mortgagees.

e. To amend, alter, or change the interior design and arrangement of all units and to alter the boundaries between units so long as the developer owns the units so altered.

f. Any amendment to the Master Deed will become effective upon the recording of an amendment to the Master Deed in the office of the Register of Deeds for Douglas County, Nebraska. The Grantor will, thereafter, provide copies of said amendment to each owner and mortgagee affected thereby.

Section 5. Application.

All present and future owners, mortgagees, lessees and occupants of condominium units and their employees, and any other persons who may use the facilities of the Regime in any manner are subject to these By-Laws, the Master Deed and the Rules and Regulations.

The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or mortgage, or the entering into of a lease or the act of occupancy of a condominium unit shall constitute an agreement that these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations, and the provisions of the Master Deed, as the same may be amended, shall apply to the unit and the owner thereof.

ARTICLE II. UNIT OWNERS

Section 1. Annual Members' Meetings.

After three (3) years have expired from the date the Master Deed was recorded in Douglas County, Nebraska, or upon the closing of the sale of the 17th unit, or as soon as the Developer, Bert P. Allen, Trustee, or his successor, shall relinquish control of the Board of Administrators, whichever shall first occur, the initial meeting of the Association unit owners shall be held.

At such meeting, the original Board of Administrators shall resign as members of the Board of Administrators and as officers, and all the unit owners, including the Developer (as a unit owner if applicable), shall elect a new Board of Administrators. Thereafter, the annual meetings of the unit owners shall be held on the second Monday of January of each succeeding year. At such meetings, the Board of Administrators shall be elected by ballot of the unit owners in accordance with the requirements of Section 4 of Article III of these By-Laws. So long as the Developer shall own one or more of the units, the Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Administrators who shall serve for a term of one year. The unit owners may also transact, at each such annual meeting, such other business as may properly come before them.

Section 2. Special Members' Meetings.

Special meetings of the Association unit owners may be called by the President, Vice-President or by a majority of the Board of Administrators and must be called upon receipt of written request from members holding 51% or more of the total votes of the Condominium Regime as outlined in Exhibit "H" to the Master Deed. Notice of a special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. No business, except that stated in the notice, shall be transacted at the special meeting.

Section 3. Place of Meetings.

Meetings of the Association unit owners shall be held at the registered office of the Northampton Court Association, Inc. or at such other suitable place convenient to the unit owners as may be designated by the Board of Administrators.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Northampton Court Association, Inc. to mail a written notice of the initial and each annual or special meeting of the Association unit owners at least ten (10) but not more than thirty (30) days prior to such meeting, stating the purpose thereof as well as the time and place where it is to be held, to each unit owner of record, at his unit address or at such other address as such unit owner shall have designated by notice in writing to the Secretary. The mailing of a notice of meeting in the manner provided by this Section shall be considered proper service of notice.

Section 5. Quorum.

The designation of any such proxy shall be dated, made in writing and delivered to the Secretary prior to or at the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is to be exercised, and shall be revocable at any time by written notice to the Secretary by the owner or owners so giving the proxy. No proxy shall be valid for longer than eleven (11) months from the date thereof unless otherwise stated in the proxy. In instances of other than individual ownership, any or all of such owners may be present at any meeting of the unit owners and (those constituting a group acting unanimously) may collectively vote to take any other action as an individual unit owner either in person or by proxy. The total number of votes of all unit owners shall be no more than 100,000, and each unit owner (including the Developer and the Board of Administrators, or its designee, if it shall then hold title to one or more units) shall be entitled to cast the number of votes allocated to his or her unit as outlined in Exhibit "H". A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to any unit owned in a fiduciary capacity.

Section 7. Majority Vote.

The vote in person or by proxy of unit owners holding 51% or more of the total votes for all units as outlined in Exhibit "H" to the Master Deed at a meeting at which a quorum shall be present shall be binding upon all unit owners for all purposes except where the Master Deed or these By-Laws require a higher percentage vote.

Section 8. Procedure.

The President shall preside over members' meetings, and the Secretary shall keep the minute book wherein the resolution and minutes shall be recorded.

Section 9. Adjournment.

If any meeting of the unit owners cannot be held because a quorum has not attended, a majority of the unit owners (using their votes as allocated in Exhibit "H" to the Master Deed) who are present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than forty-eight (48) hours from the time the original meeting was called, and no further notice shall be required.

During the time that the Board of Administrators is controlled by the Developer, the Board of Administrators shall be composed of three (3) persons who need not be unit owners. However, when the control of the Board of Administrators is passed to the unit owners, the Board of Administrators shall be composed of five (5) persons, all of whom shall be unit owners, their employees or members of their families, or in the event of ownership by an entity other than a natural

The Board of Administrators shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association and the Condominium Regime, and may do all such acts and things, except such as by law, by the Master Deed, or by these By-Laws may not be delegated to the Board of Administrators by the unit owners. Such powers and duties of the Board of Administrators shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

The Board of Administrators may employ for the Condominium Regime a managing agent and/or a manager at a compensation established by the Board of Administrators, to perform such duties and services as the Board of Administrators shall authorize, including but not limited to:

Any contract between such managing agent and/or manager must provide that it can be terminated by the Board of Administrators in its discretion.

If professional management has been previously required by an eligible mortgage holder, or eligible insurer, or eligible guarantor, any decision to establish self-management by the Association shall require the prior written consent of unit owners who have at least 67% of the total votes outlined in Exhibit "H" and by the eligible mortgage holders who hold at least 51% of the first mortgages on all of the units in the Condominium Regime. The 51% of the first mortgage holders need not be a part of the 75% of the unit holders. See Section 2, Article X for the definition of eligible mortgage holders, insurers, and guarantors.

Section 4. Election and Term.

At the initial meeting of the Association unit owners, the members of the Board of Administrators shall be elected to serve until the next annual meeting of the Association unit owners; provided that if said next annual meeting is less than six (6) months from the date of the initial meeting, the Administrators shall be elected to serve until the next annual meeting after the annual meeting which is less than six (6) months in the future. Each Administrator shall be elected thereafter to serve a term of one (1) year or until his successor shall have been duly elected by the Association unit owners. There shall be no cumulative voting for Administrators. The nominees receiving the most votes for the offices available shall be elected.

Section 5. Removal of Administrators.

Thereafter, at any regular or special meeting of the Association unit owners, any one or more of the members of the Board of Administrators may be removed with or without cause by a vote of unit owners holding 51% or more of the total vote of the Condominium Regime as set forth in Exhibit "H" attached to the Master Deed, and a successor may then and there or thereafter be elected to fill the vacancy thus created.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

Section 1. President of the Board of Administrators.

Following the election of the members of the Board of Administrators at each annual meeting, the newly elected members of such Board shall, by vote, select one of the Administrators as President of the Board of Administrators for the coming year. The President of the Board of Administrators shall also be the President of the Association and the Board of Administrators shall adopt or elect the remaining officers of the Association as follows:

- (a) The principal officers of the Association shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who, with the exception of President, shall not be required to be Administrators; who shall be elected annually by the Board of Administrators at each annual meeting for a term of office of one (1) year; and who may succeed themselves in office.

- (b) The Board of Administrators may, from time to time, appoint...

- (c) The officers shall have the powers and rights and shall be charged with the duties and obligations usually vested in or pertaining to such offices, or, as from time to time directed by the Board of Administrators.

Section 2. Vacancies.

The office of any principal officer shall be vacated and filled as follows:

- (a) Any principal officer may be removed from office at any time by a majority vote of the Board of Administrators, either for or without cause.
- (b) Any vacancy among the principal officers may be filled by appointment by the Board of Administrators for the unexpired term of office.

Section 3. Fees, Expenses and Wages.

The Board of Administrators and officers shall serve without remuneration for their services but shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred by them. The Board of Administrators may, from time to time, fix the wages and other compensation paid to any agent or employee of the Association.

ARTICLE V. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF ADMINISTRATORS

Section 1. Indemnification.

Each Administrator and officer of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association against all costs and expenses, including attorney fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with or resulting from any action, suit, or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a member of the Board of Administrators or a principal officer of the Association (whether or not he continues to be a member of the Board of Administrators or principal officer at the time of incurring such cost or expense), except in relation to matters as to which a recovery shall be had against him by reason of his having been finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been derelict in the performance of his duty as a member of the Board of Administrators or principal officer of the Association. The foregoing qualifications shall not, however, prevent a settlement by the Association prior to final adjudication when such settlement appears to be in the best interests of the Association. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any member of the Board of Administrators or principal officers may be entitled as a matter of law.

ARTICLE VI. DUES, ASSESSMENTS, AND OTHER FINANCIAL MATTERS

fiscal year. Budgets may be amended by the Board of Administrators during a current fiscal year where necessary, but copies of the amended budget and proposed increase or decrease in assessment shall be mailed to each unit owner prior to the effective date of such increase or decrease.

Section 3. Annual Assessments.

The first annual assessment shall be levied against each unit and the owner thereof, including the units to which the Developer still holds title, when the first unit is closed and on January 1 of each year thereafter. The annual assessment shall be divided as evenly as possible into twelve (12) monthly payments, with the first payment to include the remainder after division. These monthly payments shall become due and payable upon the 15th day of each month during the fiscal year. Annual assessments to be levied against each unit and the owner thereof shall be computed according to such unit's pro-rata share of the total annual budget for the fiscal year based upon his or her unit's Percentage Share of Expenses as set forth in Exhibit "H" to the Master Deed.

Section 4. Working Capital Assessments.

A working capital fund will be established by the Developer, or his successor, for the initial months of the operation of the Condominium Regime equal to at least two months' estimated common area charged for each unit. Each unit's share of the working capital fund will be transferred to the Association at the time of the closing of the sale of each unit and maintain in a segregated account for the use and benefit of the Association. The contribution to the working capital fund for each unsold unit shall be paid to the Association within sixty (60) days after the date of the conveyance of the first unit. The purpose of the fund is to insure that the Board of Administrators will have cash available to meet unforeseen expenditures, or to acquire additional equipment or services deemed necessary or desirable by the Board of Administrators. Amounts paid into the fund are not to be considered as advance payment of regular assessments.

Section 5. Increases and/or Decreases in Assessments.

Annual assessments may not be increased by more than ten percent (10%) above the level of the immediately preceding year except upon approval of owners having a vote of fifty-one percent (51%) of the total vote of the Condominium Regime as set forth on Exhibit "H" attached to the Master Deed.

Section 6. Special Assessments.

Special assessments may be assessed and levied against each unit, in addition to the annual assessments provided for above, during any assessment year for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair or replacement of a capital improvement of the common elements, including fixtures and personal property, subject to the owner approval provisions of the Master Deed and these By-Laws or for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair or replacement of a limited common element. Where no owner approval provision is applicable, the discretion of the Board of Administrators shall control. Special assessments with respect to common elements shall be based upon the Percentage Share Of Expenses of each unit as set forth in Exhibit "H" attached to the Master Deed.

Special assessments shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after the assessment is levied against the applicable unit or units and notice thereof has been given to the respective owners, and special assessments not paid within thirty (30) days thereafter shall be treated according to the interest and lien provisions hereafter provided.

Section 7. Escrow Assessments.

The administrators of the Association may require that all assessments set forth in this Article be paid into an escrow fund to be held and managed by a bank or savings and loan association. Unit owners may be required to execute automatic or similar automatic withdrawal authorizations with respect to annual assessments. Failure of a unit owner thereafter to pay his annual assessments according to such a plan shall constitute default thereof entitling the Association to accelerate the due date of such annual assessments.

Section 8. Personal Assessment Liability.

Each unit owner or, if more than one, jointly and severally, shall be personally liable for the payment of assessments under the preceding Sections. Upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from the due date of an assessment, if said assessment remains unpaid, the Association may bring suit against the owner or owners of said unit for recovery of the same. If the assessment is a monthly installment of an annual assessment, the default in payment of one installment within said thirty (30) days, may, at the option of the Association, cause the remainder of the installments for that annual period to become immediately due and payable. The defaulting unit shall be liable for the unpaid assessment or assessments, interest thereon from the due date to the date paid at the highest legal rate chargeable to individuals in Nebraska, and attorney fees and expenses incurred in the collection of the same. No proceeding to collect defaulted assessments pursuant to this Section shall constitute a waiver of the lien of the Association against said defaulting owner's unit nor a waiver of the right of the Association to foreclose thereon.

As provided in Section 76-819 of the Condominium Property Act the grantee of a unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the grantee's right to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefore. Provided, however, that upon payment of a reasonable fee and upon written request, any such prospective grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Board of Administrators, or the manager, which shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons relying thereon in good faith.

The provisions set forth in this Section shall not apply to the initial sales and conveyances of the condominium units made by the Developer, and such sales shall be free from all assessments to the date of conveyance.

Section 9. Assessment Lien.

If any unit owner shall fail to refuse to make any payment of an assessment when due, the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on the interest of the unit owner in his unit and the Administrators may record such lien in the office of the

at the highest legal rate for individuals in Nebraska from the due date until paid. The delinquency of one installment of an annual assessment beyond the thirty (30) day period shall cause all remaining installments, at the option of the Association, to be immediately due and payable. The Board of Administrators shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover such common charges, together with interest thereon, and the expenses of the proceeding, including attorney fees, in an action to recover the same brought against such unit owner, or by foreclosure of the lien on such unit granted by Section 76-817 of the Condominium Property Act. In any action brought by the Board of Administrators to foreclose a lien on a unit because of unpaid assessments, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his unit from the date of institution of the proceeding and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Board of Administrators, acting on behalf of all unit owners, shall have power to purchase such unit at the foreclosure sale, and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, vote the votes appurtenant to, convey or otherwise deal with the same. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same.

Section 10. Statement of Unpaid Assessments.

Upon payment of a reasonable fee, not to exceed Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00), and upon the written request of any unit owner, prospective purchaser or of any mortgagee of a condominium unit, the Board of Administrators, or the managing agent, shall issue a written statement setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current periodic assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, any penalties due, and credit for advance payments or for prepaid items, which statement shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith.

Section 11. Nonwaiver.

The omission or failure to timely fix any assessments or deliver or mail a statement for any period shall not be deemed a waiver, modification or a release of the owners from their obligation to pay the same.

ARTICLE VII. INSURANCE

Section 1. Coverage.

The Board of Administrators shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, the following insurance: fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the entire condominium improvements and any other property, whether or not a common element (including all of the appliances and fixtures therein initially installed by the Developer and all appliances and fixtures therein subsequently installed by the unit owners but not including furniture, furnishings, or other personal property supplied or owned by unit owners), together with all service equipment contained therein in an amount equal to the full replacement value, without deduction for depreciation, and which shall contain a standard noncontributory mortgage clause in favor of each mortgagee of a condominium unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, hereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Board of Administrators hereinafter set forth in Article VIII.

An owner shall not be responsible to the Association for repair to common elements or limited common elements by casualty, unless such casualty is due to the act or negligence of the owner, his guests, invitees or tenant. The Board of Administrators shall have the obligation to answer any written request by a unit owner for approval of a proposed structural addition, alteration or improvement in such owner's unit, within thirty (30) days after such request, and failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute a consent by the Board of Administrators to the proposed addition, alteration or improvement. Any application to any governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any unit shall be executed by the Board of Administrators only, without, however, incurring any liability on the part of the Board of Administrators or any of them to any contractor, subcontractor or materialman on account of such addition, alteration or improvement, or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom. The provisions of this Section 2 shall not apply to units owned by the Developer until such units shall have been initially sold by the Developer and paid for.

Section 3. Alterations or Enlargement of Common Elements by Association.

There shall be no improvement nor enlargement of the common elements nor additions thereof if such improvement, enlargement or addition shall cost more than $1,000 during any single fiscal year, unless and until such proposal is approved in writing by owners holding at least 75% of the Percentage Share of Expenses as set forth in Exhibit "H" to the Master Deed, and until a proper amendment of the Master Deed, if required, has been duly executed, acknowledged and recorded pursuant to law.

The cost of the alteration or enlargement and of amending the Master Deed shall be a common expense and shall be collected by special assessment against all unit owners.

In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the unit owner is present at the time or not.

Section 4. Abatement and Enjoining of Violations.

The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Administrators or the breach of any of these By-Laws contained herein, or the breach of any provisions of the Master Deed, shall give the Board of Administrators the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-Laws:

The Board of Administrators, when giving notice to a unit owner of a default in paying assessments or other default, shall send a copy of such notice to each holder of a mortgage covering such unit, or insurer or guarantor of such mortgage, whose name and address has theretofore been furnished to the Board of Administrators.

If there is any condemnation loss or any casualty loss which affects a material portion of the Condominium Regime or any unit on which any first mortgage held, insured, or guaranteed, or if there is any delinquency in the payment of assessments or charges owned by a unit owner subject to a first mortgage which is held, insured, or guaranteed which remains uncured for a period of sixty (60) days, or if there is any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy or fidelity bond maintained by the Association, or any proposed action which would require the consent of a specified percentage of mortgage holders, the Board of Administrators shall give written notice of such facts to the eligible mortgage holders, eligible insurers, and eligible guarantors at the addresses furnished to the Association. Section 2. Damage or Destruction-Repair and Reconstruction Mandatory.

In the event of damage or destruction due to fire or other disaster, which damage or destruction is determined by the Board of Administrators to be less than 75% of the total replacement cost of all the condominium units in this Condominium Regime, not including land, such damage or destruction shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the Association as attorney-in-fact, and the Association shall have full authority to deal with insurance proceeds in such repair and reconstruction.

In the event that insurance proceeds are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the improvements, the Association shall levy a special assessment upon all units of the Regime to provide an amount sufficient to conduct said repair and reconstruction along with insurance proceeds. Such assessment shall be levied and collected according to Section 6 of Article VI, and the Association shall also have the rights noted in Section 9 of Article VI. In arriving at such figures to be presented to the owners, the Board may employ such experts as deemed advisable. After presentation of all relevant financial information available to the Board, the owners may adopt either a plan of repair and reconstruction or a plan of sale. At the meeting, if a quorum is present, either plan may be adopted by a majority vote, as defined in Section 7 of Article II. After the adoption of the plan, the Board of Administrators shall use all diligence to obtain the written approval of all unit owners who favor the plan adopted. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the condominium unit designation and the name of the owner. Thereafter, each such account shall be supplemented by the apportioned amount of the proceeds obtained from the sale of the entire property and any available funds of the Association.
